

My Camp Aurora Pledge of Conduct

I will strive to be a model of Heavenly culture. I will not bring the habits of the secular world into Camp Aurora. This includes such things as talking about drugs or sex, name-calling, put-downs, swears, excluding others, etc.

I understand there is a zero-tolerance policy for substance abuse. This includes but is not limited to the use of drugs, inhalants, e-cigarettes (vaping) and alcohol. I will be sent home upon my first infraction.

I will respect God, others and myself by wearing appropriate clothing at all times. Clothing that is too tight or too short is not permitted. Bikinis and Speedos are considered inappropriate swimwear as are oversized tank tops with cuts down the sides. Graphics and text on shirts should be tasteful. Camp staff determines what is considered to be inappropriate.

I will respect God, others and myself by participating 100% and being on time to all camp activities. When I am late, I am taking up everyone else's time as well. Participation with a positive attitude is essential for a good camp experience.

I will respect the camp schedule, others and myself by observing "lights out". The end of the day is as important as the beginning. I understand that everyone gets the most out of camp on the foundation of a good night's sleep.

To be fully present, I commit to not use my cell phone or other electronics at camp. We ask campers to give up their cell phones so as to focus on building relationships at camp. Computers are not allowed and should not be brought to camp.

I, _____, agree to abide by these and all other rules and guidelines instituted by Camp Aurora Staff. I want to support the building of an incredible camp experience for myself and everyone else.
